35. If you have selected 'other' for the question above, please provide details here. If not, please leave this field blank

(Small text box)

36. Please describe the children and young people you hope to work with, with this funding.

Please tell us more about the issues and barriers of the children and young people. If you are applying for core funding, please tell us about the children and young people your organisation supports.

(Text box - maximum 300 words)

37. What knowledge or experience does your organisation have in working with the children and young people supported with this funding?

Please tell us more about how you have supported children and young people with the issues and barriers outlined above and how you are well placed to do so. If this work is new to you then please explain how your organisation is well placed to offer this support.

(Text box - maximum 300 words)

38. How do you plan to use this funding?

If you are applying for project funding, please tell us more about the work that you will deliver to support and engage the children and young people you hope to work with.

If you are applying for core funding, please describe how this funding will be spent to help you to strengthen your organisation and therefore better support children and young people.

Please ensure you link your answer back to the children and young people you support.

(Text box - maximum 300 words)

39. Does your proposed work include any of the following?

Please only tick these boxes if your application will fund work that directly addresses these areas. Do not tick this box if your work doesn't directly address these areas, even if there are children and young people attending who have experienced these challenges. If you are applying for core funding and your organisation doesn't deliver work in these areas in its output, please do not tick the boxes.

BBC CHILDREN IN NEED

We are asking this because we require additional checks to be completed as part of the application process before we can fund this work. Work with Child Criminal Exploitation (CCE), Serious Youth Violence and work and projects that are directly working to support children and young people affected by Child Sexual Exploitation (CSE), are ineligible for applications under £15,000 a year.

(Tick boxes)

- Befriending/Mentoring Activity

We define mentoring or befriending as 'a voluntary, mutually beneficial and purposeful relationship, in which an individual gives time to support another to enable them to make changes in their life'. Only organisations that are providing a formal and structured arrangement are required to tick this box

- Residential/Overnight Stay

We define a residential as an overnight stay for one or more nights.

- Counselling/Therapy Work

we define this as any type of structured therapy intervention, such as, but not limited to, counselling, group therapy, play therapy, art therapy and drama therapy. Only organisations that are offering formal, professional counselling or therapy are required to tick this box.

- Child Sexual Exploitation (CSE) Work
- Child Criminal Exploitation (CCE) Work
- Serious Youth Violence Work

Diversity, Equity and Inclusion:

Diversity, Equity and Inclusion Questions

NOTE: Please see the privacy notice below before completing this form.

BBC Children in Need: Diversity, Equity and Inclusion in our grant-making.

As part of our commitment to diversity, equity and inclusion, we would like to monitor the diversity of organisations that apply for funding and hold grants with us and the diversity of those who they support. If our diversity, equity and inclusion work in our grant-making develops further we may use the information you provide to inform our grant making decisions though our use of positive action in accordance with the Equality Act 2010.

We'd like to find out if your project will help groups which can sometimes be under-represented in society.

Asking you these questions will help us:

BBC CHILDREN IN NEED

- better understand who's applying for funding
- try to reach certain groups more.

What is Diversity, Equity and Inclusion?

'Diversity' is about including various aspects of the differences between people. These differences include:

- race and ethnicity
- faith
- sexual orientation
- disability
- age
- gender

'Equity' is about fairness. If we treat everyone in the same way, funding programmes will not reach people in an equal or fair way.

'Inclusion' is about helping people feel valued. It's also about making sure they can take part in decision-making processes.

How we will use this information

BBC Children in Need will use the information we collect to monitor diversity, equity and inclusion across our funding and to report on this to our board. We will share anonymised, aggregated data externally in order to be transparent about diversity, equality and inclusion in our processes and portfolio. If our diversity, equity and inclusion work in our grant-making develops further we may also use the information you provide to inform our grant making decisions though our use of positive action in accordance with the Equality Act 2010.

If you do not wish to give us this information, please answer 'Prefer Not to Say' to each question below.

Do you consider your organisation to be diversity-led?

By diversity-led we mean that 75% or more of your Board/Management Committee, and over 50% of senior staff are from diverse backgrounds. If your Board/Management Committee or senior staff belong to more than one group it is okay to answer 'Yes' to more than one category.

40. Are the majority of your Board/Management Committee and senior staff:

40a. From communities experiencing ethnic or racial inequity, discrimination or inequality?

Communities that experience inequity, discrimination or inequality as a result of their race or ethnic group. Ethnic group refers to the group that

Do you expect to support a diverse group of children and young people?

BBC CHILDREN IN NEED

In the main application form we collect data on the groups of children and young people being targeted for support. Here we want to ask about the diversity backgrounds of children and young people our funding reaches (whether they are the characteristics targeted by organisations or not).

If 75% or more of the children and young people benefitting from your project are from one particular group then please answer 'Yes' in the questions below. The children and young people who benefit may come from more than one group and it is okay to answer 'Yes' to more than one category.

41. Are 75% or more of the children and young people you expect to reach:

41a. From communities experiencing ethnic or racial inequity, discrimination or inequality?

Privacy Notice in relation to the above questions

Wherever possible we collect the above information in a way that means we won't be able to identify individuals. Sometimes this isn't possible (because for example an applicant has a small senior management team) therefore we have carefully considered the privacy implications of collecting this information and want to share this with you to give you confidence in our processes and explain what safeguards we have put in place to ensure this data will only be used for the reasons set out above.

Please make all your trustees and senior management aware of this privacy notice as it explains how we use their data too.

This information will be recorded on our grant management system for a period of nine months so it is available for grant making decisions (if applicable) analysis and reporting. These data will then be removed from your record in our grant management system but the system will keep a copy of the full application form in accordance with our retention policy (an extract of which is available on request). The removed data will be kept securely in a separate system with access restricted to those who need the information for analysis purposes. We will also collate answers to these questions in an aggregated anonymous way (so individuals cannot be identified) for analysis purposes. All data will be retained in accordance with our retention policies (an extract of which is available on request) and kept in accordance with our Special Category Data Policy (available on request).

We want you to know that we have a legal basis for collecting and using this information in the ways explained above. It is in our legitimate interests to try to ensure we identify or keep under review the existence or absence of equality of opportunity or treatment between groups of people with a view to enabling such equality to be promoted or maintained and to try to ensure we achieve fuller and more effective equality outcomes for groups of people with protected characteristics under the Equality Act 2010. There is also substantial public interest reason in us doing this.

This information will be shared in accordance with our normal grant processes as set out here.

If you do not feel comfortable providing the above information, please choose 'prefer not to say', or if you change your mind do let us know by contacting cindpo@bbc.co.uk.
