

Earth Day Crossword

A crossword puzzle grid with 15 numbered starting points for words. The grid consists of white squares for letters and empty spaces. The numbered squares are:

- 1: Top-left corner, 10 squares long.
- 2: Second row, second column, 10 squares long.
- 3: Third row, first column, 4 squares long.
- 4: Fourth row, second column, 10 squares long.
- 5: Fifth row, fourth column, 6 squares long.
- 6: Sixth row, first column, 10 squares long.
- 7: Seventh row, first column, 4 squares long.
- 8: Eighth row, second column, 10 squares long.
- 9: Ninth row, second column, 4 squares long.
- 10: Tenth row, second column, 6 squares long.
- 11: Eleventh row, first column, 10 squares long.
- 12: Twelfth row, first column, 4 squares long.
- 13: Thirteenth row, second column, 10 squares long.
- 14: Fourteenth row, second column, 4 squares long.
- 15: Fifteenth row, second column, 10 squares long.

Earth Day Crossword

Solve the clues to complete the crossword. Each of the answers to the clues relates to Earth Day. The number at the end of each clue represents how many letters the answer has.

Across

3. The name of the element most commonly associated with climate change. It can be followed by the word 'footprint' or 'dioxide'. (6)
4. The natural living (biotic) and non-living (abiotic) features of a place. (11)
5. A planned series of activities to achieve a goal such as raising awareness of creating change. (8)
9. Relating to the use of computer technology. (7)
12. Actions which meet the demands of the present without limiting future generations to meet their own needs. (11)
13. Decaying organic matter, often made in back gardens from vegetable and garden waste, used for fertilising soil. (7)
14. The process of putting a seed, bulb or plant into the ground so that it can grow. (5)

Down

1. The process of replanting an area with trees. (13)
2. The metaphorical representation of the amount of carbon produced by an individual, organisation or group through their activities and lifestyles: carbon _____. (9)
6. A word used to describe an item intended to be thrown away. (10)
7. Leftover, eliminated or unwanted materials or by-products. (5)
8. A resource which is not diminished when it is used - it recurs and cannot be exhausted. (9)
10. The colour often used to describe ideas, activities or technology designed to be environmentally friendly. (5)
11. The process of converting waste materials into reusable material. (9)
15. Large woody plants usually consisting of a single trunk, branches and leaves, which grow to a considerable height and live for many years. (5)

Earth Day Crossword

Solve the clues to complete the crossword. Each of the answers to the clues relates to Earth Day. The number at the end of each clue represents how many letters the answer has. The first and last letter of each answer has been given to help you.

Across

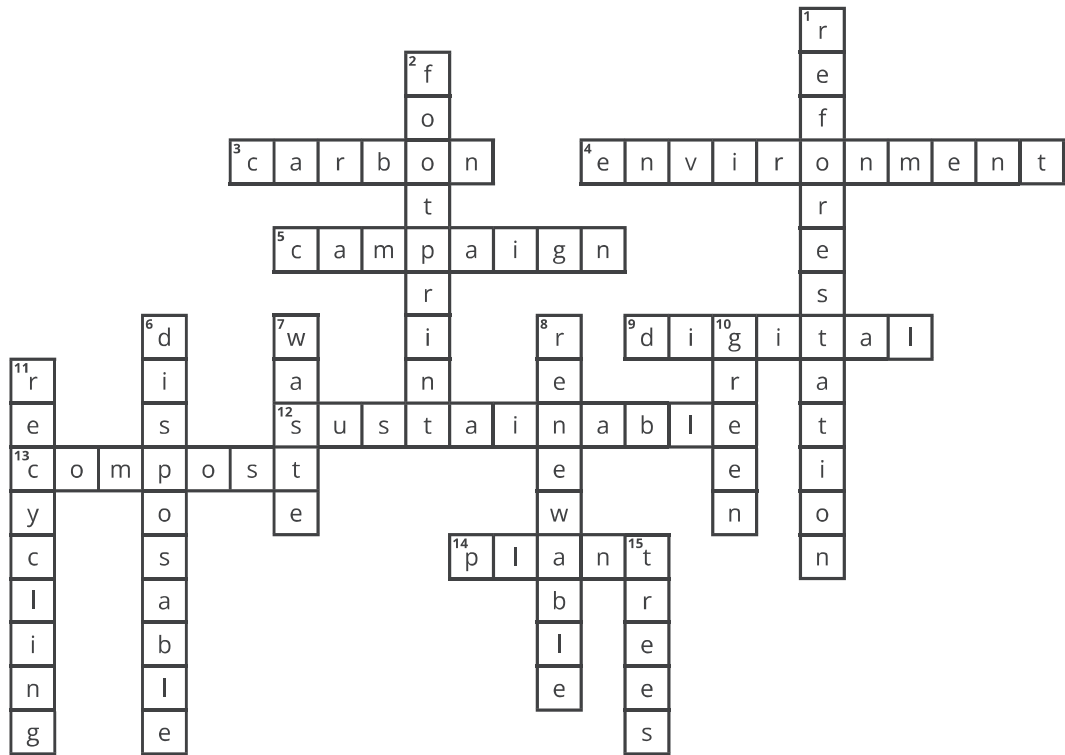

- The name of the element most commonly associated with climate change. It can be followed by the word 'footprint' or 'dioxide'. (6) c _ _ _ _ n
- The natural living (biotic) and non-living (abiotic) features of a place. (11) e _ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ t
- A planned series of activities to achieve a goal such as raising awareness of creating change. (8) c _ _ _ _ _ _ n
- Relating to the use of computer technology. (7) d _ _ _ _ _ l
- Actions which meet the demands of the present without limiting future generations to meet their own needs. (11) s _ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ e
- Decaying organic matter, often made in back gardens from vegetable and garden waste, used for fertilising soil. (7) c _ _ _ _ _ t
- The process of putting a seed, bulb or plant into the ground so that it can grow. (5) p _ _ _ t

Down

- The process of replanting an area with trees. (13) r _ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ n
- The metaphorical representation of the amount of carbon produced by an individual, organisation or group through their activities and lifestyles: carbon _____. (9) f _ _ _ _ _ _ _ t
- A word used to describe an item intended to be thrown away. (10) d _ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ e
- Leftover, eliminated or unwanted materials or by-products. (5) w _ _ _ e
- A resource which is not diminished when it is used - it recurs and cannot be exhausted. (9) r _ _ _ _ _ _ e
- The colour often used to describe ideas, activities or technology designed to be environmentally friendly. (5) g _ _ _ n
- The process of converting waste materials into reusable material. (9) r _ _ _ _ _ _ g
- Large woody plants usually consisting of a single trunk, branches and leaves, which grow to a considerable height and live for many years. (5) t _ _ _ s

Earth Day Crossword Answers

Across

- The name of the element most commonly associated with climate change. It can be followed by the word 'footprint' or 'dioxide'. (6) carbon
- The natural living (biotic) and non-living (abiotic) features of a place. (11) environment
- A planned series of activities to achieve a goal such as raising awareness of creating change. (8) campaign
- Relating to the use of computer technology. (7) digital
- Actions which meet the demands of the present without limiting future generations to meet their own needs. (11) sustainable
- Decaying organic matter, often made in back gardens from vegetable and garden waste, used for fertilising soil. (7) compost
- The process of putting a seed, bulb or plant into the ground so that it can grow. (5) plant

Down

- The process of replanting an area with trees. (13) reforestation
- The metaphorical representation of the amount of carbon produced by an individual, organisation or group through their activities and lifestyles: carbon _____. (9) footprint
- A word used to describe an item intended to be thrown away. (10) disposable
- Leftover, eliminated or unwanted materials or by-products. (5) waste
- A resource which is not diminished when it is used - it recurs and cannot be exhausted. (9) renewable
- The colour often used to describe ideas, activities or technology designed to be environmentally friendly. (5) green
- The process of converting waste materials into reusable material. (9) recycling
- Large woody plants usually consisting of a single trunk, branches and leaves, which grow to a considerable height and live for many years. (5) trees