

How Feelings Affect Me

We are all affected by feelings differently. We are all special, unique individuals and how we feel and choose to express our emotions is individual to us.

How we react to feelings depends on our backgrounds and our previous experiences.

Think about a feeling you are comfortable with.
Think about how that feeling affects you.

Draw, label or write how the feeling affects your mind and body.

